World and Book Traveler
KP Williams, Pendleton County native, joined the PCPL staff in May of this year. After 15 years studying, serving, and working in higher education across the U.S. and abroad, KP returned to Kentucky in 2025.

When not at the library, you can find KP helping develop leaders through his coaching and consulting practice, Creative Recess, as well as on stage and behind the scenes on the board at Kincaid Regional Theatre. You may have recently seen him in their performance of “Sister Act.”
